

CrimeSolutions New Releases

February 2, 2021

Selective School-Based Violence Prevention Programs Reduce Aggression

This practice consists of programs designed to prevent or reduce aggressive or violent behavior in K–12 students who are considered at risk of or who have demonstrated such antisocial behaviors.

The practice is rated Effective for reducing aggression in students who participated in school-based violence prevention programs, compared with students who did not participate.

LEARN MORE

Practice Snapshot

Age: 4 - 18

Gender: Male, Female

Setting (Delivery): School

Practice Type: Classroom Curricula, School/Classroom Environment, Violence Prevention

Unit of Analysis: Persons