Dear all,

Please find below a link with further details of a SGSSS funded PhD project at the University of Dundee.

The project will explore aspects of a new approach to women's imprisonment in Scotland, through the evaluation of a new Community Custody Unit in Dundee:

<https://www.sgsss.ac.uk/studentship/closer-community-connections/>

This PhD is fully funded, and will be supervised by both Fernando Fernandes and me, the PhD is in partnership with Apex Scotland.

The scholarship holder will be, preferably, a student with a combined experience of community education and/or criminal justice.

We particularly welcome applications from female prospective students and/or people with lived experience of prison.

Please pass onto any students you know who might be interested, this could either +3 or a 1+3.

Thanks,

Matt
