

Max Planck Institute for the Study of Crime, Security and Law (Freiburg, Germany)

Job opening for a postdoc researcher (3 years) at the Max Planck Institute for a project on crime and human mobility during the Covid-19 pandemic in Germany

The Independent Research Group ‘Space, Contexts, and Crime’ at the Max Planck Institute for the Study of Crime, Security and Law (Freiburg, Germany) is seeking a postdoc researcher (pending final funding decision).

The project will analyze the changes in recorded crime in southwest Germany during the current pandemic in association with changes in human mobility and structural conditions, focusing both on the temporal and spatial patterns of crime at different geographic levels.

More details / apply at: <https://csl.mpg.de/en/career/>

For further questions please reach out to: Prof. Dietrich Oberwittler
(d.oberwittler@csl.mpg.de)

Prof. Dr. phil. Dietrich Oberwittler

*Research Group Leader, Independent Research Group Space, Contexts, and Crime, Max
Planck Institute for the Study of Crime, Security and Law - Department of Criminology*

Günterstalstrasse 73, D-79100 Freiburg i.Br. (Germany) |

Tel. ++49 761 7081 219 |

Institute: www.csl.mpg.de

Personal: www.csl.mpg.de/oberwittler