European Prison Regime Forum The Role of Sports in Reintegration and Improved Employability

Registration Open!

Event Date: 13 April, 2021

Location: Online Webinar

Sport can have a considerable value for prisoners in increasing their chance for a successful reintegration back into society and for better chances for employment after release. In the half-day online workshop of the European Prison Regime Forum on 13 April (10-13am CET) the value of sports will be a central topic and some good practices will be presented on how sport initiatives and contacts with sport clubs have brought positive results for (ex) prisoners.

CRS Online Dialogue The Hidden Casualties of COVID? Understanding Prison Staff Well-Being in a Crisis

Registration Open!

Event Date: 15 April 2021

Location: Online Webinar

Why are prison staff so invisible in the current pandemic?

How has staff well-being been impacted, managed, and thought about, in the last year?

What can we learn from rapidly developing practice?

What are the best sources of understanding and support?

The problem of invisibility is longstanding. How can the research and practitioner communities respond constructively to the moral and operational challenges of working in prisons in 2021 and beyond?

This online dialogue has been organized jointly by EuroPris, ICPA and CEP.
