

We cordially invite you to the Presidential Plenary of the American Psychology-Law Society (AP-LS) hosted by Prof. Allison Redlich, president of AP-LS and Senior Fellow of the CEBCP

AP-LS PRESIDENTIAL PLENARY 2021

Recommended Police Reform to Racial Injustice: From Ferguson to Floyd and Beyond

Moderator/Panelist
Cynthia Lum

Panelist
Laurie Robinson

Panelist
Deray Mckesson

Panelist
Charles Ramsey

May 14, 2021, 12:00 – 1:15pm EST

Register for this event here:

Advanced registration is required

1.5 Continuing Education Credits Offered

Prof. Allison Redlich, President of the American Psychology-Law Society, invites you to this webinar, bringing together four renowned experts on police reform. Led by Moderator Lum, the panelists will discuss incidents of racial injustice and recommendations to prevent future occurrences and improve community-police relations. Panelists Robinson and Ramsey served as the Co-Chairs of President Obama's Task Force on 21st Century Policing, which was a partial response to the death of Michael Brown in Ferguson, Missouri, and culminated in an important set of recommendations. Panelists Lum and Mckesson are members of the Council on Criminal Justice's Task Force on Policing, which was a partial response to the death of George Floyd and is currently evaluating more than two dozen proposed police reforms, such as those on preventing excessive force, reducing racial biases, increasing accountability, and improving relations between law enforcement and communities.

PLEASE JOIN US TO LEARN HOW RESEARCHERS AND PRACTITIONERS CAN JOIN THIS IMPORTANT CONVERSATION AND CONTRIBUTE TO THE GROWING EVIDENCE-BASE ON POLICE REFORMS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE INITIATIVES –<https://ap-ls.org/presplenary2021>