

 Please forward this message to anyone you think might be interested *****

'Best Article on Restorative Justice' prize

Dear colleagues,

We hope this finds you all safe and well.

Have you come across an outstanding academic article on restorative justice published since January 2020, which should be considered for the European Society of Criminology RJ Working Group's 'Best Article on Restorative Justice' prize?

Please send your nominations by 7 July 2021 to kerry.clamp@nottingham.ac.uk and estelle.zinsstag@kuleuven.be.

Articles which have appeared in languages other than English are eligible for consideration (but have to be accompanied by a translation in English when submitted).

This year's prize is sponsored (so far) by Taylor&Francis, Eleven International Publishing and Sage who have generously contributed to it.

The winning article will be decided by a panel consisting of Prof Grazia Manozzi, Em Prof Lode Walgrave and Em Prof Frieder Dunkel, as well as Kerry and I.

The winning article will be announced at the upcoming Eurocrim conference in September 2021.

If you need any other information, do not hesitate to contact us.

All good wishes,
Estelle & Kerry

Dr Estelle Zinsstag

Lecturer in Criminology, School of Applied Sciences
Edinburgh Napier University, UK

Associate Researcher / . Centre for Criminology / University of Oxford, UK
. Leuven Institute of Criminology / University of Leuven (KU Leuven), Belgium

Co-Editor in Chief / . 'The International Journal of Restorative Justice' (TIJRJ)
. Book series 'Studies in Restorative Justice' by Eleven International Publishing

Co-Chair / . ESC Working Group on Restorative Justice / . Scottish Network of Restorative Justice Researchers (SNRJR)

e.zinsstag@napier.ac.uk
estelle.zinsstag@crim.ox.ac.uk estelle.zinsstag@kuleuven.be

My personal webex room: https://edinburghnapier.webex.com/meet/meets_autogen_6505