

Webinar in July 29, 2021 on:

Advances in State-level Crime and Victimization Surveys

JRSA and the Center for Victim Research are hosting an upcoming webinar that you may find of interest: “Advances in State-level Crime and Victimization Surveys: Lessons from the Oregon Crime Victimization Survey.”

Registration is free and open to all.

More information can be found here: <https://victimresearch.org/event/advances-in-state-level-crime-and-victimization-surveys-lessons-from-the-oregon-crime-victimization-survey/>

A reminder that the Newsletter Committee is seeking to highlight community scholars and activist activities in the upcoming newsletter.

If you have the name of a DOV scholar who has made a positive impact in the community (in terms of outreach, informing policy, community engagement, etc.), or if you have any activist activities that you would like to highlight, please send this information along to Sarah Rogers at sr51@mailbox.sc.edu as soon as possible.

Thank you!

Jillian J. Turanovic, Ph.D.

Secretary, ASC Division of Victimology

Associate Professor

College of Criminology and Criminal Justice

Florida State University

jturanovic@fsu.edu