Call for Abstracts for the Conference

„The best of the worst and permanently bad. Life-long prisoners”.

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the international criminology conference “The best of the worst and permanently bad. Life-long prisoners”. The conference will be held on November 18-19, 2021 via the internet platform.

The event is organized jointly by research team lajfersi.uw.edu.pl and Department of Criminology and Criminal Policy, University of Warsaw. The conference is the culmination of a three-year research project conducted under the same title and financed by the National Science Center (contract no. 2017/27/B/ HS5 /00633). Our research leader is Dr Maria Niełacznna.

We invite you to to submit proposals on a wide range of topics as part of the topic of life imprisonment. The conference will consist of two parts. During the first one, the following topics will be discussed:

- the purpose of life imprisonment and the practice of its execution
- rehabilitation of life and long-term prisoners
- tasks performed by prison staff in working with life prisoners.

The second part will cover topics related to:

- strategy of adaptation of life prisoners
- problems of life prisoners, who they are, how they arrange their lives in prison.

We invite you to deliver a twenty-minute speech during the conference.

Registration is free. Further information about our research project is available on <http://lajfersi.uw.edu.pl/en/about-us/>

Please respond by July 31, 2021 to the e-mail address: lajfersi@uw.edu.pl.

We are waiting for title and abstract (up to 250 words) of your speech.
