Dear Recipients of CCJ-News

The 12th Annual Conference of the Asian Society of Criminology was recently held at Ryukoku University from June 18 to June 21, 2021. Although the conference was held online, many researchers and practitioners from Japan and abroad participated in watching the pre-recorded data of research presentations and discussing in the live sessions.

We have decided to make the conference recordings available to the public (for a fee) so that as many people as possible can view them.

We would like to ask for your cooperation in publicizing the conference video to the public (for a fee).

Release of Recording Videos of Presentations

at the Asian Criminological Society 12th Annual Conference

The 12th Annual Conference of the Asian Society of Criminology (ACS2020) in June 2021 featured 4 Keynote Sessions, 7 Plenary Sessions, 20 Pre-arranged Thema Sessions, 3 Round Table sessions, and 95 Individual Presentations, with many research reports and discussions by domestic and international researchers and practitioners.

David Garland (Professor of Sociology of Law, New York University, USA), Shadd Maruna (Professor, School of Social Sciences, Education and Social Work, Queen's University, UK), Lorraine Mazerolle (Professor, School of Criminology, University of Queensland Professor, School of Criminology, University of Queensland, Australia), and John Pratt (Professor, Institute of Criminology, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand) discussed criminology and the contemporary global pandemic of COVID-19.

To make these very valuable research reports and lectures widely available, recording videos of the conference will be made available to the public (for a fee) as follows. Please feel free to register.

[Registration]: The video will be available from the date of registration until August 31, 2021. Please register by August 25, 2021.

The secretariat will contact you individually with your login ID and password for the 12th ACS Annual Conference Online Platform (Confit) after you have registered for a ticket within three working days.

The proceeds will be used to cover the costs of running the conference, and we would appreciate your understanding.
