

European Developmental and Life-Course Criminology working group,

(Please feel free to forward this along to anyone you know who may be interested.)

+++++

Dear members of the European Developmental and Life-Course Criminology working group,

The Eurocrim e-conference 2021 of the European Society of Criminology will take place online, from Wednesday 8-10 September 2021. As in previous years, the conference programme committee has invited the Working Groups to organise panel sessions.

As chairs of the European Developmental and Life-Course Criminology working group we organised three thematic panel sessions on life-course criminological topics, and we are hoping to welcome you at these online panels.

Panel 1, September 8 at 1.00pm, is about Domestic violence and child maltreatment

1. Intimate partner violence in young adulthood (Janna Verbruggen & Arjan Blokland)
2. Domestic violence and criminal behavior: two sides of the same coin? (Veroni Eichelsheim, Sjoukje van Deuren, Janique Kroese, Meintje van Dijk, Arjan Blokland & Steve van de Weijer)
3. Stay home, stay safe? National trends in reports of domestic violence during the COVID-19 pandemic in the Netherlands (Anne Coomans, David Kühling, Sjoukje van Deuren, Meintje van Dijk, Steve van de Weijer & Veroni Eichelsheim)
4. Child maltreatment during school and childcare closure due to the COVID-19 pandemic (Samantha Vermeulen, Sheila van Berkel & Lenneke Alink)

Panel 2, September 8 at 2.30pm, is about Criminal careers and desistance

1. Criminal careers of former juvenile girls (Dagmara Wozniakowska-Fajst)
2. Type of debut offence and the risk of becoming a chronic offender throughout the criminal career (Tjeerd Piersma, Matthijs Kros & Karin Beijersbergen)
3. Should I stay or should I go: Exploring the spatial dimensions of desistance in convicted sex offenders (David Thompson & Stephen Farrall)
4. Desistance from crime or persist in it? Criminal trajectories on the example of Polish criminal career research (Dominik Wzorek & Justyna Włodarczyk-Madejska)

Panel 3, September 8 at 4.00pm, is about Childhood and adolescent predictors of externalizing behavior and offending

1. How neighborhood factors influence externalizing behaviors? A mediation analysis of parenting among children and adolescents (Mariana Machado, Gilda Santos, Carla Cardoso & Margarida Santos)
2. Childhood and adolescent predictors of offending: A systematic review of meta-analyses (Miguel Basto-Pereira & David Farrington)
3. Do parents and teachers agree? Results from a cross-informant agreement study on children's externalizing behaviors (Gilda Santos, David Farrington, Candido da Agra & Carla Cardoso)

We also have a joint panel with the Intergenerational Criminology working group:

Panel 4, September 9 at 7.00pm, is about Intergenerational transmission of crime and adversity

1. Intergenerational family relationships in organised crime (Ana Guerreiro, Sílvia Gomes & Pedro Sousa)
2. The Intergenerational Continuity of Adversity and Resilience (IN-CARE) Project (Mirla Schaeffer, Victor van der Geest & Veroni Eichelsheim)
3. The effects of individual and intergenerational life events on criminal behavior: a family-based research design (Steve van de Weijer)

For more information about the submitted papers, please check the programme online: <https://eurocrim2021.secure-platform.com/a>

Best wishes,
Janna Verbruggen and Victor van der Geest