Treat Kids as Kids: Stop The Adult Criminalization of Youth

Tuesday, October 12

3:00 PM EDT

#YJAM

We know youth are criminalized at every turn with many children pushed into the adult legal system every year. In honor of Youth Justice Action Month this October, The Sentencing Project is joining the National Juvenile Justice Network and the Coalition for Juvenile Justice for a panel discussion around policy changes we can make today to ensure youth are not treated like adults — including ending youth interrogations, direct file reform, and repealing Juvenile Life Without Parole laws.
