

Scottish Centre for Crime and Justice Research

Dear all,

You are invited to join us for the next Social Analysis of Penalty Across Boundaries Workshop which takes place on Tuesday 16th November, 4pm GMT.

Register to hear from Professor David Santos Fonseca who is a senior lecturer at the Universidade Federal do Sul da Bahia (UFSB) in Brazil, where he coordinates the Observation Center for the Criminal Justice System. David's research focuses on developments in punishment and crime control in Brazil and Latin America.

Attendees will be sent a paper by Professor Fonseca ahead of the event, 'Between penal minimalism and punitive authoritarianism: Brazilian incarceration policy and the dynamics of subnational variation' which will form the basis of his workshop.

Please circulate this email to colleagues and networks. All welcome!

REGISTER VIA EVENTBRITE Professor David Santos Fonseca Workshop Tickets, Tue 16 Nov 2021 at 16:00 | Eventbrite

A zoom link will be sent via Eventbrite so please check your inbox or junk folder.

The Social Analysis of Penalty
Across Boundaries Workshop Series

Professor David Santos Fonseca
Federal University of Bahia, Brazil

"Between penal minimalism and punitive authoritarianism: Brazilian imprisonment policies and the dynamics of subnational variation".

Tuesday 16th November 2021
4pm (GMT)

UNL UNIVERSIDAD NACIONAL DEL LITORAL
SCCJR The Scottish Centre for Crime & Justice Research

The graphic features a circular portrait of Professor David Santos Fonseca on the right. The background is grey with orange and yellow accents. Logos for UNL and SCCJR are at the bottom.

Rachelle Cobain
Centre Communications Officer

Scottish Centre for Crime and Justice Research
Please note I work part-time Mon-Wed
www.sccjr.ac.uk