

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is our pleasure to invite you to the Online conference of the Victimology Society of Serbia *Victims and Contemporary Social Context: Challenges and Perspectives, which will be held on 25th and 26th November 2021.

The aim of the online conference is to enable the exchange of experiences and knowledge and to point out the challenges, but also the directions of further work and efforts related to the status of crime victims in the modern social context and the development of victimology.

Working language of the conference is Serbian, but for the sessions Victims and Challenges of Conducting Research in the Contemporary Social Contexts (25th November 2021, 10.30-12.00am CET) and Victims and Responses to Victimization in Modern Society (25th November 2021, 3.00-5.00pm CET) working language is English. This sessions can be followed live on the facebook page of the Victimology Society of Serbia.

There is no registration fee for the conference, but any donation is welcome. Donations will be used for urgent needs of victims who are most affected by COVID-19 virus, as well as for improving the capacity of the victim support service of the Victimology Society of Serbia. We kindly ask you to send email: vdsrbija@gmail.com for instruction for payment.

You can find the complete programme here.
