

Hello everyone, see below or attached for information about Eurogang 2026.

Deadline to submit your abstract: December 1st, 2025.

Please distribute in your network

Thanks!

Martin ( Martin Bouchard, PhD, Director and Professor, School of Criminology, Simon Fraser University)

mbouchard@sfu.ca |

[School of Criminology - Simon Fraser University \(sfu.ca\)](http://School of Criminology - Simon Fraser University (sfu.ca))

+++++

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

23rd WORKSHOP OF THE EUROGANG PROGRAM OF RESEARCH

March 11 - 13, 2026

Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada

The 23rd workshop of the Eurogang Program of Research will be held in Burnaby, BC at Simon Fraser University. Martin Bouchard is the local organizer and program coordinator for the workshop.

Theme: The workshop theme is “Gangs and Guns: What policymakers need to know.”

We encourage submissions on topics that include but are not limited to:

- 1. new directions in collecting data and generating actionable research on gangs and guns
- 2. the art and craft of research on gangs from an international-comparative perspective;

Format: The workshop will include research presentations, breakout sessions, and free-flowing discussions. Attendees are expected to participate in all workshop activities and sessions.

A special issue of Global Crime, will be organized around the theme of this meeting.

Requests: Two types of participation requests will be considered:

1. Research presentation. Presentations of this type entail delivering developmental or completed drafts of papers. Please submit the title, abstract (not to exceed 200 words), and names and contact information for all authors associated with the paper, including which co-author(s) will deliver the presentation (non-presenting co-authors must separately request participation—see option #2).
2. Other participation: Additional forms of participation are also welcomed, including, non-presenting coauthors, and non-presenters. Please submit a statement of no more than 150 words about your professional and/or research interests, with a specific emphasis on how attendance at this workshop will enhance your professional development.

We strongly encourage submissions from graduate students, junior scholars, practitioners, and researchers from countries not typically represented at Eurogang meetings.

Costs: Funding has been obtained to cover lodging and meals for workshop participants (speakers are given priority). Participants are responsible for paying for their travel to/from the workshop.

We would like to acknowledge the support of: the City of Burnaby; Public Safety Canada; The David and Cecilia Ting Family Endowment. We also invite additional sources of support to supplement components of the meeting (please consult Martin Bouchard).

Submission: Space is limited. Submit participation requests via Google Forms: EuroGang Call for Proposal. Submissions are due no later than December 1st. Invitations will be extended starting December 15th.

Questions? Logistics: Eurogang2026@gmail.com ; Other questions: mbouchard@sfu.ca

Martin Bouchard, PhD

Director and Professor, School of Criminology, Simon Fraser University

mbouchard@sfu.ca | School of Criminology - Simon Fraser University \(sfu.ca\)